CHINESE NEW YEAR

Artists : Wang Keping, Wang Tong, Zhang Dali

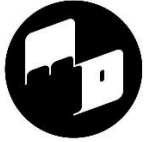

AN ARTY CHINESE NEW YEAR

Deeply settled in the Chinese art scene and based in Shanghai since 2009, Magda Danysz explores a large panorama of the thematics and techniques used by Chinese contemporary artists. Chinese New Year is a festive and joyful exhibition. An artistic celebration of the passage from the Monkey to the Roaster. No monkeys or roosters in this exhibition, it would have been too easy. Magda Danysz decides to celebrate this special moment with art.

While preparing her next opening in March in a new space in Shanghai, Magda Danysz gallery celebrates the Chinese New Year in Paris with an exhibition dedicated to the most promising artists of their generation. From Wang Keping to Huang Xiaoling to the stars Zhang Dali or Maleonn.

The Monkey was a symbol of changes and renewal for Magda Danysz galleries; both in Paris with a totally remodeled space inaugurated in October 2016. And in Shanghai where Magda is preparing for a new adventure in a new space in the heart of the city in collaboration with Naço Agency.

Chinese New Year is a range of talents from the Chinese art scene, all supported and represented by Magda Danysz. The exhibition shows emerging photographers such as Huang Xiaoliang, Bai Guanghua or Feng Fangyu. Most of these artists are often inspired by the classical aesthetic tradition and they make references to the great historical Chinese culture by creating delicate and dreamlike works full of lightness.

Artistes : Bai Guanghua, Huang Xiaoliang, Maleonn

Alongside, Magda Danysz presents internationally recognized talents such as Zhang Dali or Maleonn, exhibited in the gallery since 2009.

This exhibition is an opportunity to immerse ourselves in the projects produced by Magda Danysz during her Chinese experience. Others pieces are also highlighted, including the Eternal Smile by Wang Keping, iconic steel sculpture that reveals the humor of the flagship artist of the group of the Stars (Xing Xing) and contrasts with the delicate curves of his bronze sculptures with female profiles.

Finally, Magda Danysz invited many Western artists to discover China as well: she asked the French artist “L'Atlas”, who came several times in residence, to realize a work in situ in tribute to this Chinese New Year.

By the bridge created with China since 2009, Magda Danysz gallery offers us the opportunity to discover young Chinese artists, but also confirmed and famous artists. She gives an enthusiastic insight into the richness, originality and vitality of contemporary Chinese production.
